Travel Editor, Yankee Magazine

Join a New England media institution that since 1935 has been a leading source of travel information for residents and visitors alike. The Yankee brand includes an award-winning bimonthly print magazine, a robust website, a travel-themed national TV show, and a growing portfolio of custom and sponsored content.

Responsibilities:

The travel editor will provide travel content to all of Yankee's channels, including the bimonthly print magazine, the website NewEngland.com, social media platforms, and custom publishing. As a member of the editorial team, the travel editor will develop travel features for the print magazine as well as produce the annual Best of New England section. On the digital side, the travel editor will write numerous posts for the website as well as contribute to Yankee's social media outreach.

An important part of this position will be working with our custom content team on current and new projects for a variety of clients. The travel editor will also represent the Yankee brand via public appearances and media interviews.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree, preferably in a field that stresses a love and respect for words, creativity, and accuracy
- Minimum five years' editorial experience with a proven track record of writing, editing, and producing strong work under deadline pressure (experience with custom publishing is a bonus)
- Deep knowledge of the New England region
- Ability to travel widely in New England
- Expertise in creating photo and video content for social media

 The Travel Editor is a full-time opportunity in our Dublin, NH office, although we will consider a remote candidate within an EDT time zone. You will work with knowledgeable and passionate team members and enjoy a competitive compensation package, including health, dental, life and disability insurance, 401(k) Plan and match, paid short-term absences, holidays, vacation, Employee Stock Option Plan, and more!

Apply online with introductory letter, resume, and work samples

(Web links preferred) to https://ypi.com/work